The rights, duties, privileges and qualifications for each class of Members shall be as set out in the By-laws of the Association. Members shall be admitted to and removed from membership as provided in the By-laws.

DIRECTORS

The affairs of the Association shall be conducted by an Executive Committee, which shall have those authorities, duties and responsibilities provided by the By-laws of the Association. The Executive Committee shall be comprised of a minimum of 5 and a maximum of 12 Directors of whom one shall be the President of the Association. The remainder of the Directors shall be elected annually by the Members of the Association from among themselves or appointed as provided in the By-laws of the Association. The Executive Committee may, from time to time, enact such By-laws as they may consider appropriate with respect to the affairs of the Association. Any such By-law shall be effective only until the next Annual General Meeting unless confirmed by a majority of votes cast at that Meeting, and in default of confirmation at that Meeting, shall cease to have effect at and from that time. Any action taken under any such Bylaw prior to such Annual General Meeting shall be valid and binding on the Association notwithstanding the failure of the By-law to be confirmed.

DISSOLUTION

Upon the Members passing a “special resolution” for the dissolution of the Association, the net assets remaining after payment of all debts shall be transferred to one or more other netball associations operating within Canada as selected by the Executive Committee. If no other netball association is then operating within Canada, the Executive Committee shall gift the remaining assets to one or more netball associations outside of Canada.
